

THE BLOODY MARY

In 1934, famed bartender Fernand Petiot at The St. Regis New York's legendary King Cole Bar perfected the recipe for a vodka and tomato juice cocktail he called The Bloody Mary. Deemed inappropriate for their elegant clientele, it was rechristened the Red Snapper.

While the name may not have stood the test of time, the beloved Bloody Mary remains the signature cocktail of St. Regis and can still be enjoyed where it was originally concocted – under the watchful eye of the Old King Cole, Maxfield Parrish's brilliant iconic mural.

'LANG MARY'

(The St. Regis Langkawi Resort)

The Lang Mary draws inspiration from the symbol of Langkawi, the eagle. Langkawi means island of the reddish-brown eagle in colloquial Malay.

The tropical flavour of the local pandan, tamarind and silky heads (or lemongrass) are joined in this aromatic citrus interpretation.

'BALI MARY'

(The St. Regis Bali Resort)

Using Jicama, a traditional favorite fruit in Indonesia, and refreshing cucumber in a unique recipe, the Bali Mary transports Indonesians back to flavours of their early years.
